

Inspiration Healthcare & Micrel Medical UK Pledge to PINNT

Inspiration Healthcare's ethos is 'Patient First' and in line with the NHS statement 'Your Health, Your Choice'. We work with healthcare professionals, patient support groups and patients themselves to give the relevant information required to allow an informed choice on the use of ambulatory pump and accessories. This we pledge to continue; patient choice leads to patient satisfaction.

We work closely with all relevant parties to allow patients the ability to try our product without commitment. HPN patient's needs are as individual as the person, Inspiration Healthcare respect this and will support the patient, the carer, healthcare professionals during the decision process.

We pledge to continue to listen to patients, allow them the chance to try the pump without commitment and to respond to their feedback. We support the work of LITRE and pledge to continue our support in respect of user feedback which will serve to keep dialogue going to partnership in keeping the products user friendly without losing the clinical safety and effective.
